Superintendent, Board Attempt Levy Increase

Superintendent S. Gene Denisar

Supt. S. Gene Denisar, in his second year at the helm of the North Kansas City School District, spent a great deal of 1985-86 trying to drum up support for a levy increase. He and the Board of Education put it up for election on February 4th. The voters of the district soundly defeated the proposed $1.26 increase (per $100 assessed value) with 63 percent voting no.

When asked about the election, Dr. Denisar stated, "I really believe that we were asleep that time." He and the Board agreed they had overlooked the fact that there had not been a levy increase voted on in 16 years.

The Board and Dr. Denisar were hardly asleep in preparing for the second round on June 3rd. A School for Kids committee was formed, and that committee raised over $13 thousand toward passing the levy increase. They rounded up people to distribute yard signs, bumper stickers and "Yes" buttons. And they canvassed the entire district the Saturday prior to the election. In addition, a number of proposed cuts in the district's budget were announced, including closing Pleasant Valley Elementary School, and eliminating 23 Instructional Assistant positions and four custodial positions for the following school year.

Again, the levy was defeated, but only by a five hundred vote margin. At printing time, it was believed the Board would run a third election for the much-needed funds in August.

Paula Del Campa Gigena

Paula del Campo Gigena, comes from Melo, Uruguay, with the population of 38,000. Paula lives with her parents and her two sisters, Maria and Anna. Her brother, Jose Maria, has moved to the capital city to attend the University. In addition to her home they have a ranch where they go all the time.

In Uruguay Paula spends most of her time with friends and family. Her school system is very different from here. When she goes back she will go back to school for a year and a half, and will graduate in 1987. After that she plans to go to the University and major in denistry. Paula's hobbies and interest includes running, reading, and dancing.

Paula wanted to come to the U.S.A. because she'd heard a lot about it and wanted to see how it really was.

Paula likes "Tonka" very much, and thinks the students and teachers are "cool".

In the fall Paula lettered in Cross Country and now participated in Track. Her favorite classes are computer programming, typing, and ceramics. She enjoyed Prom very much, because she doesn't have Prom in Uruguay.

Her host sister was Gina Cuccar and her family.

Paula is going to miss everyone when she leaves, but will be happy to see her folks.

H.P. Roth

Hans Peter Roth comes from a small village near Bern, Switzerland, with the population of 10,000 people. H.P. lives with his mother and Father. He has two older sisters who left home a few years back.

In Switzerland H.P. is involved with activities, such as volleyball, scouting, school activities, canoeing, and skiing. He also likes being with friends, being outdoors, and anything related to the water.

His school system is very different than the U.S. when he goes back H.P. has to finish two years of high school. After high school he plans to go to college and major in geography.

He decided to come to the United States because some of his friends had come and said it was great. Then he wanted to see for himself.

H.P. liked "Tonka" very much. He enjoyed how friendly the students were and how they made him feel involved.

In the fall H.P. lettered in Cross Country and now is participated in Track. He enjoyed Prom very much with his date, Holly.

He said that, "not everything this year was good, but he is going to miss everyone. He will be glad to see his home, again.

Makiko Yokota

Makiko Yokota visited us from Tokyo, Japan, where she lives with her parents and younger sister. After graduating from her school at home in 1988, she plans to attend a university to major in French, World History, or geography.

While at Winnetonka, Makiko was a member of the tennis team, in which she lettered, and student council. Her favorite classes included gymnastics, French, and typing. In her free time, here and in Japan, Makiko enjoys listening to music, talking on the phone, and going shopping.

"This great year is the most important year in my life," Makiko said. She would like to thank everyone at Winnetonka who helped her and hopes to stay in their minds.

Deborah Painter was Makiko's host sister.

This year's growing AFS club began the school year by electing its officers: Tracy Herrington, president, Lurleen Kennedy, vice-president, Debbie Baker, secretary, Michael Gatewood, treasurer, and Robert Taylor, historian. In the fall AFS had several dinners dealing with the exchange students. During the holidays, especially Christmas, AFS sold Christmas holly. In addition they had a Christmas buld contest, to collect enough money for the exchange students to call home.

As a club they had a secret pal exchange. Former student Anita Giovagnoli had a slide presentation about her American's Abroad trip to Japan For Valentines The AFS club club sold carnations for a money making project. The three exchange students organized a spirit dance with the sophomore class to which they invited all the AFS students. The last event was a picnic to say goodbye to three good friends: Makiko, Paula, and H.P. who we all will miss very much.

Kari Aalto from Finland and Alba Rodriguez from Ecuadur visited Winnetonka on AFS Day. They spent the year at Liberty and North Platte.

Foreign Languages

This year's German club had an interesting year. In the fall the club had an Octoberfest. Their money-making projects included selling advent calendars, gummy bears, and chocolate bars. The club was in charge of the concession stands at the volleyball games. In the spring, the members went horseback riding. Their final banquet was at the Berlinen Bear.

All the students were involved in the Foreign Language Fair. The principal's award was given to Renee Johnson for her ABC booklet. Also, Lou Gilbert, Steve Kidwell, Rick Wuckowitsch, and Steve Young won the best of show award.

Officers were Melissa Davis, president; Kathy Davis, vice-president; Kim Schmaltz, secretary; Tina Buchanan, treasurer; Mike Kirkham, historian.

This year's Spanish Club had a large membership. The club created various activities to last throughout the school year. In November, all of the members met at Dos Hombres in North Kansas City to eat dinner together. In February, the members met again at the Alamo. Debbie Baker, Tracy Herrington, and Vince Picone conducted an initiation for the Hispanic Honorary Society. On April 14th, 25 students from Winnetonka were initiated into this society. The students were to have completed at least 3 semesters of Spanish and maintained an E- average to become a member. On May 5th, the Spanish Club met for their last dinner at Annie's Santa Fe on the Plaza. The members of the Hispanic Honorary Society had their dinner paid for.

For Christmas the club had a Christmas party after school in the Spanish room. Donated to the Guatalupe Center in Kansas City was 50 dollars before the Christmas vacation. The money came from the club's treasury.

The highlight of the French club's year was its trip to France. The club worked hard to raise money to send members overseas. Officers for the year were Deborah Painter, president; Annie Moreno, vice-president; and Wendy Powell, secretary/treasurer.

Memories Of Linger For

Early on Sunday morning, the fifteen of us meet at KCI, TWA flight #034: Heather Foxe, Stacey Franklin, Emily Hicks, Lurleen Kennedy, Michelle Key, Steve Martin, Angie McCarty, Stephanie Matthys, Jennifer Metzler, Annie Moreno, Deborah Painter, Jennifer Paulsen, Tammy Proctor, Renee Schmidt and Roberta Torrey. Emotions included excitement, doubt, apprehension and pure delight. After more than a year of earning money, we were finally getting to board a TWA flight to Chicago and eventually to France. Excitement and nervousness not only held us victim, but held our parents as well. They were, after all, going to be without us for two weeks, too.

Mrs. Barmann gathered us together, handed out boarding passes and attempted to get us all on the plane. For some of us it was our first flight; others were experienced fliers. We kissed our family and friends goodbye with few tears. Then we walked through a door that wouldn't divulge us until some two weeks later. After a smooth takeoff we landed a short time later in Chicago. The next time we stepped of the plane we were in Paris, France.

After the eight hour flight, our first shock was perhaps the vigor with which Parisians, as well as all other French, drive. They drive well over our 55.

Soon after we settled into our hotel, the Hotel Cecile, the moment we'd anticipated for quite some time arrived. We began our walking tour of Paris. We first stood on the Place de la Concorde. It is the center of Paris. From the Place, one can see, the Arch of Triumph, the Eiffel Tour, the Louvre and the Madleine.

France
French Students

Over the next three days we visited Rue de Rivoli, the Sacre-Coeur (the "Sacred Heart," a church) and an area of Paris called Montparnasse. Not only were the monuments and areas exciting but most of our group enjoyed the people in our hotel.

On Thursday of the first week we each went to stay with a family in Le Mans. We had almost all communicated with our families prior to our arrival in Le Mans. Various comments about our family stay include Michelle Key's "Fun!"; "It was an interesting experience," from Steve Martin; and "I loved it!" oozed Jenni Metzler.

The following Wednesday we visited chateaus-Chambord and Chenonceaux. Chenonceau was reportedly the favorite. Upon the conclusion of our chateau tour we went to Chartes where we walked to an old church very similar to Notre Dame.

Thursday and Friday we went to the Louvre (a tremendously large museum) and Versailles, respectively. In the Louvre we saw the Venus de Milo and the Mona Lisa. Versailles was the grand palace of Louis the XIV. We spent the entire day there and didn't get through all of the beautiful gardens let alone the palace that once housed 10,000 people.

On that Saturday we shopped. We bought our gifts for our families and friends, and occasionally for ourselves. We went out to dinner at a nice restaurant our last night in Paris. Then we took a walking tour of Paris at night. It was absolutely gorgeous.

Our Sunday was approximately 35 hours long. As the pilot announced that we were landing in Kansas City, stifled applause and cries of joy filled the small aircraft. We were relieved that we were home after two weeks. but sad that we were no longer in Paris.

Anxious parents greeted us as we disembarked. Anxious students greeted them. And with that we all silently put Paris away as an experience of the past, knowing memories will always linger.

Student Council

If you don't think your Student Council does anything, think again. They sponsored Spirit Days, Spirit Weeks, and open forums; sold balloons and buttons during enrollment and at football games; hosted an assembly with Dan Clark; and organized the Homecoming Parade.

StuCo also held food drives, sponsored the Sweetheart Dance and Courtwarming. They worked the annual Bloodmobile. Donkey basketball was here again due to StuCo's effort, as was the Camfel production in the gym. As a fundraiser, StuCo collected money for the Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

StuCo ended its year with a banquet saying farewell to another year. This year's StuCo officers were Myla Tosatto, president; Vonda Ridgeway, secretary; and Lori Witmer, treasurer.

Fellowship Of Christian Athletes

Fellowship of Christian Athlete's officers of the '85-'86 school year were Brenda Smith, president; Jana Siemens, vice-president; and Michael Newton, secretary-/treasurer. The club sponsored the annual powderpuff football game, toured the FCA headquarters, and cleaned the grounds and planted trees as its Arbor Day project.

Advanced Business Office Education, which is taught at Oak Park High School, offers students interested in business additional teaching. This year's participants in the program were Mitzi Napper, Terri Hammock, Shannon Hylton, George Picone, Jackie Roberts, and Mary Roderick.

Advanced Programming teaches students practical computing. William Braden, Carrie Cox, Leesa Donnici, Tammy Kanan, Gerald O'Guin, Jeffrey Ring, James Stark, Joanne Busch, Warren Carpenter, Cindy Gonzales, Robin Inlow, and George Picone went to Oak Park to take Advanced Programming this year.

Electronics I and II, taught at North Kansas City, were taken by Tariq Baig, Rick Godsey, Steven Hicks, and Howard Cosman. These students learned the basics of electronics.

Building Trades I and II students, Phillip Mozingo, Tracy Noland, Kevin Sheets, Billy Weidenhammer, Brian Homan, James Moon, Brian Fitzpatrick, Larry Fleener, and David Wheeler, went to North Kansas City High School to learn of their trade. They also built a house and put it on the market.

Auto Service I and II taught mechanics to be used in the future. These students were Shelly Beaird, Gary King, Leland Bush, Kevin Cates, John Giglio, Michael Moore, David Mynatt, Russell Sanders, Gerald Anderson, Richard Blackburn, John Blankenship, and Jimmy Herrington.

FHA-HERO has been a very active club this year. They have participated in many service projects such as a Halloween party for the Niles Home for Children, Christmas gifts and favors at a nursing home where they also sang Christmas carols and visited with the elderly, and for Easter FHA went to the Children's Mercy Hospital to give treats and play games with the little children. FHA also has a state representative by the name of Ida Wilson who has participated in so many workshops.

FHA has sold cookie grams, garters, warm fuzzies, cookbooks, candy and popcorn to make money for workshops, service projects, meetings, and competition. The major expense is the appreciation banquet held each spring for employers, teachers, parents, and other guests.

DECA

DECA club had an enterprising year, especially at the Northwest Missouri District Contest. Twenty-two members attended, and eight won awards. They are Mike Greer, Brian Williams, Anna Neeley, William Jarman, Mike Gardner, Dale Collins, Scott Sinclair, and Steve Hale. Dale's second place trophy in entrepreneurship individual, Scott's second and Steve's third place awards in sales demonstration qualified them to compete in the state competition.

Senior officers for the year were Brian Gann, president; Mike Gardner, vice-president; Anna Neeley, secretary; Lea Payton, tresurer; Karl Wohlgemuth, parliamentarian; Sherry Jarman and Willie Jarman, co-reporters. Wayne Huntley served as the Junior DECA president.

This year's VICA club officers were Troy Marks, president; Tammy Kanan, vice-president; Vonda Ridgeway, secretary; Larry Cahill, treasurer; Farrin Deck, reporter; and Louis Rojas, parliamentarian. The members worked on fundraising projects to earn money for the C.O.E. banquet near the end of the year. They also attended the leadership conference and took part in the VICA trade reviews. The club also participated in the United Way drive.

Writers' Club

This year's writers' club officers consisted of Glinda Heuton, president; Laurie Wood, vice-president; and Leslie Williams, secretary. In writers' club the members got together and wrote stories, poems, plays, etc. or just sat and read some of what they had written. The purpose of the club is to encourage writers to continue writing. The members listen and give constructive criticism of their work. The members also write during the meetings, which helps make the writing better. The writers' club encourages any person who likes to write to come and join the club. You and the club will benefit.

First Row: Marty Myers, Jennifer Bovard, Laurie Sherman, Jaime Bryan. Second Row: Glinda Heuton, Mrs. Larner

Political Science/Youth In Government

During the fall, the Political Science Club attended the Park College Model United States Senate which closely parallels the actual function of the legislative branches' method of writing and passing a bill.

During the winter, the club participated in the Park College Model United Nations Security Council which consisted of two parts: A pair of committee meetings; The Future of the U.N. and African Famine and five topics which were discussed, debated and voted upon. Special mention goes to Russell James and Jeff Bledsoe who both won awards.

March 20, 21, and 22 were the dates of the annual Youth in Government Conference in Jefferson City. Club members participated in the Legislative and Press arms of the programs. Attending this event were Janeen Newman, Robin Brasher, Colleen Newman, Wendy Powell, Brian Whitmer, Rob Kinder, Rob Lyons, and Jeff Ring.

First Row: Janeen Newman, Kim Clark, Wendy Powell, Brian Whitmer, Rob Kinder. Second Row: Mr. Pfitzner, Dawn Green, Rob Lyon

Northland Teen Institute

N.T.I., Northland Teenage Institute, is a program on substance abuse. It is a weekend retreat filled with magic! During the time three days (at Precious Blood Seminary) the students attend workshops. The workshops are not for work but to get together with others and communicate.

In the workshops, topics include communication skills, building positive self-esteem, and reducing chances of drug/alcohol abuse. Other activities are coping with personal grief and learning how to correctly counsel people with drug/alcohol problems.

N.T.I. institutes are very special to those who attend. Anyone can learn so much about himself and others around, also. The feelings of everyone at the end of the weekend are incredible! There is a natural high in everyone for weeks after being in the program.

The students take the training from leaders at the institute and apply it to programs presented in local grade schools and the peers around us.

Survivors

Survivors is a group of students suffering the loss of someone close to them. The group meets to talk to each other and lend support. Since each of them has experienced similar feelings, they all make good listeners and offer the care members need. Although each person reacts to the club differently, each one benefits from the group's support.

This year's debate squad, though short of members, proved impressive with awards won throughout the year. The season started off well with Russell James's second place win in extemporaneous speaking at the Blue Springs tournament on October 11 and 12. At the Raytown and Raytown South tournaments held in December, Sabrina Ries and David Gumminger took respective first and second places in oratory. Russell James also placed first in Lincoln-Douglas debate.

Russell continued his winning streak by taking fourth places in both extemporaneous speaking and Lincoln-Douglas at Conference, along with third in extemporaneous and first in Lincoln-Douglas at Fort Osage. He then barely missed competing in the national tournament by placing fourth in extemporaneous and Lincoln-Douglas at Districts. To qualify, one must place in the top three. David Gumminger and Russell James both qualified to compete in the state competition, turning in fine performances to end the season. Russell, National Forensic League president, is hopeful for the next year's squad, having attracted twenty-five novice debaters.

Thespians/Drama Club

On Monday, April 28, 1986, chickens, clowns, walking signs, and more strange creatures inhabited the halls of Winnetonka. As some of these creatures sang songs while standing on the tables in the cafeteria, the freshmen began to wonder who these people were and what they were doing, but if they had paid attention to the announcements, they would have known that Thespian initiations were being held.

The thespians' Appleblossom Royalty, which is a parady of homecoming, was held at Englewood Park on March 28. Crowned king and queen were Brian Evans and Cathie Harlan. Price and Princess were Tim Mercer and Lori Clyma.

Thespian officers of 1985-86 school year were: President, Lori Clyma; Vice President, Tim Mercer; Secretary, Lisa Byars; Treasurer, Shannon Beeman; Historian, Holly Weyand.

"Bye Bye Biedie", "Shorts II", and "Harvey" were the plays that were performed by the drama department this year. "Juvie" was a one act play about juvenile detention. It won districts and state competitions. Lori Clyma played a sixteen year old drug dealer and murderess and was voted best actress in Missouri because of her performance.

This was the first year students can letter in drama. Some feel the standards are too high and they may be changed in the future.

The Griffin Rites Staff

The Griffin Rites newspaper put out an eight-page paper once a month during the 1985-86 school year.

The April Fool's Issue was reinstated this year, but only as a center section of a regular issue. Some of the stories that had students fooled were those on the candy machines being taken out of the building and some new, stricter rules being laid into place by the Task Force on Discipline.

The Special Academic Section was again included in the final issue of the year when various departments singled out several students who went that extra mile in their classes this year.

Perhaps the best article written for the Griffin Rites this year was the feature story on the basketball fans of Winnetonka by James Millsap.

Odyssey Staff

The Odyssey staff, under the advisement of Mr. Mark Voitenko, had a busy and productive year.

In the fall of 1985, they produced a "walk through rock" assembly which was one of the most enjoyable assemblies ever for Winnetonka. In the spring, they put on a talent show to raise some much needed cash for the yearbook. While not as enjoyable as the fall assembly, students were still able to get out of their sixth hour classes for only a dollar.

Things went more smoothly for this year's staff, but Mr. Voitenko believes it should be even better. "I'd love to have the book finished when the staff is," he said.

ikes a musical note

In December, the Winnetonka High School Dramatic Arts and Music Departments presented "Bye Bye Birdie," a musical comedy by Michael Stewart. It tells the story of a rock-n-roll idol who is about to be inducted into the army.

Conrad Birdie is modeled after Elvis Presley, with his pompadour and thick sideburns and gaudy costumes. His agent and secretary cook up a final national publicity campaign before his induction. He is to give a typical American teenage girl an All-American good-bye kiss.

Kim MacAfee, a Sweet Apple, Ohio girl, wins the honor. She has just been "pinned" to Hugo, a local boy. Birdie's arrival in Sweet Apple causes the entire town to turn upside down. And the MacAfee household is completely upset by their daughter's association with the 50s rocker.

It is decided that Birdie will give his one last kiss on the Ed Sullivan Show. Kim's father, who detests the whole affair, tries to break into the act by behaving like a ham on the TV show.

The result is fun, laughs, and great music. The play gives the audience an insight into the everyday life of a teenager. Now we can all identify with that.

kes For An Hilarious Evening

Picture if you will: You've settled down on the couch equipped with comfortable pillows, remote control box, an hour's supply of iced animal cookies and milk. You're launched in a peaceful frame of mind. The color console before you radiates beautiful images of "The Jetsons."

You are drifting through the advanced stages of cartoon Nirvana when, all of a sudden, a giant white rabbit appears before you and makes himself comfortable, too, in your father's chair. Now, in most households this seems a little out of the ordinary . . . but not in the Elwood P. Dowd residence.

Elwood is an easygoing man with a happy outlook on life, and a 6 ft. 1½ in. rabbit named Harvey for a friend. But he has one big problem; his sister Veta and her daughter, Myrtle Mae, think he's crazy and want to have him committed.

This is where the friendly staff of Chumley's Rest come in. Veta seeks the aid of the renowned psychiatrist, William R. Chumley, and his assistant, Dr. Lyman Sanderson. But Veta is in for a surprise when Dr. Sanderson mistakes her for the patient and has her "restrained" by the staff bouncer, Wilson. She is literally found in a tub of hot water.

But when everything is finally sorted out, Veta finds that Elwood's pal, Harvey, isn't such a bad guy . . . er . . . rabbit after all.

. . . And They Tried On

Shorts II, a medley of five one-act plays, was presented in the Winnetonka Little Theater at the beginning of March. While four of the five one-acts from last year's Shorts were comedies, three of this year's were of a more serious nature.

The first act was a cutting from "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum." It starred Jeff Bledsoe as the illiterate but crafty Roman slave, Pseudolus, who sets up the sale of a beautiful slave girl (Lori Witmer) to the wealthy Gloriousus (Jeff Gartner). Gloriosus, unknown to anyone, is Philia's (the slave girl) long lost brother. Meanwhile, Philia falls in love with Hero (Brandon Trickey). Enter the nearly blind father of Philia and Gloriosus, and the result is a madcap misadventure that is, of course, all ironed out in the end.

"The Next Contestant" is the poignant story of a game show contestant (Glen Durbin) who, in order to win a valuable prize, must call up an old girlfriend (Mindy Shultz) on nationwide television to make a date with her. As his fiancee (Cathie Harlan) watches from the audience, he coaxes his lonely ex-girlfriend to meet him at a nearby bar. With the prize won, the show's host (Lynn Shea) tells the contestant he does not have to go through with the date. When we last see his old girlfriend, she is anxiously preparing herself for the date she'll never have.

"Ernie's Incredible Illucinations," ddirected by student Holly Weyand, is the story of a boy whose daydreams tend to become reality. At the start of the play, Ernie (Brad Jaeger) is taken to a psychiatrist (Wendy Rimmer) by his parents (Margaret Handy and Chad Bailey). Intermittently, the audience is exposed to Ernie's illucinations of Nazis, espionage, and even a boxing match involving his elderly aunt (Kylin Gillem). The skeptical doctor does not believe these childish dreams, so Ernie dreams one up involving her. At the end, she is seen leading a marching band around the stage.

"Partners", written by drama teacher Jack Simpson and his wife, involves the double date of a newly engaged couple (Karen Schmidt and David Bower) and the man and woman they are introducing to one another. The evening nearly turns out to be a disaster because it seems the two have met before. In fact they were once married to each other.

During their dinner, the divorcees (Cathie Harlan and Drew Cohalla) reflect on mistakes they both made (shown through flashbacks). After much soul-searching, the evening ends with a reconciliation.

"Juvie" Takes One-Act

"Juvie," the final one-act from Shorts II, was taken to the state contest in April and was presented first place honors of all one-act plays in the state of Missouri. Lori Clyma, in the role of Pinky, a teenaged drug pusher, was awarded the Best Actress in the competition.

"Juvie" centers on a weekend night at a juvenile detention center. The inmates come from all walks of life. With boys on one side, girls on the other, and prision bars in between, the audience learns one-by-one what has led each teenager to his/her incarceration. The crimes range from shoplifting to murder. The regulars and the newcomers all have very different and distrubing stories to tell.

In the end, only one inmate, Jean (Annette Newberry), remains in the cell — to be tried as an adult on murder charges.

"Juvie" is a sobering, intense drama filled with conflicts both inner and between the characters. It shows problem teenagers at their worst and most vulnerable.

Marching 'Pride' Work Together To Form Unique Sound

This year's edition of the Pride is a particularly resilient, tough-minded and patiently hard-working group. When you get these musicians together, you can depend on hearing the very best. These band members work hard, take their craft seriously and play extremely well. It is their band; they are proud of it. No matter what obstacle is before them, they triumph.

Sometimes when you get a group of people together, something magical happens. Just like our basketball team this year; the individuals working together create something much bigger than themselves. Any group which can work together can accomplish much and our band has done that.

Golden Variety Band Entertains

If you've ever been to a Winnetonka home basketball game — and chances are you made it to at least one this year — you have been entertained well by the Golden Variety Band. The band plays during breaks in the game and performs a medley of tunes during halftime and before the game for the Pom-pon girls to dance to. And all everyone else has to do is sit back, listen, and be entertained. The GVB certainly did its part to add to the excitement of this year's basketball season.

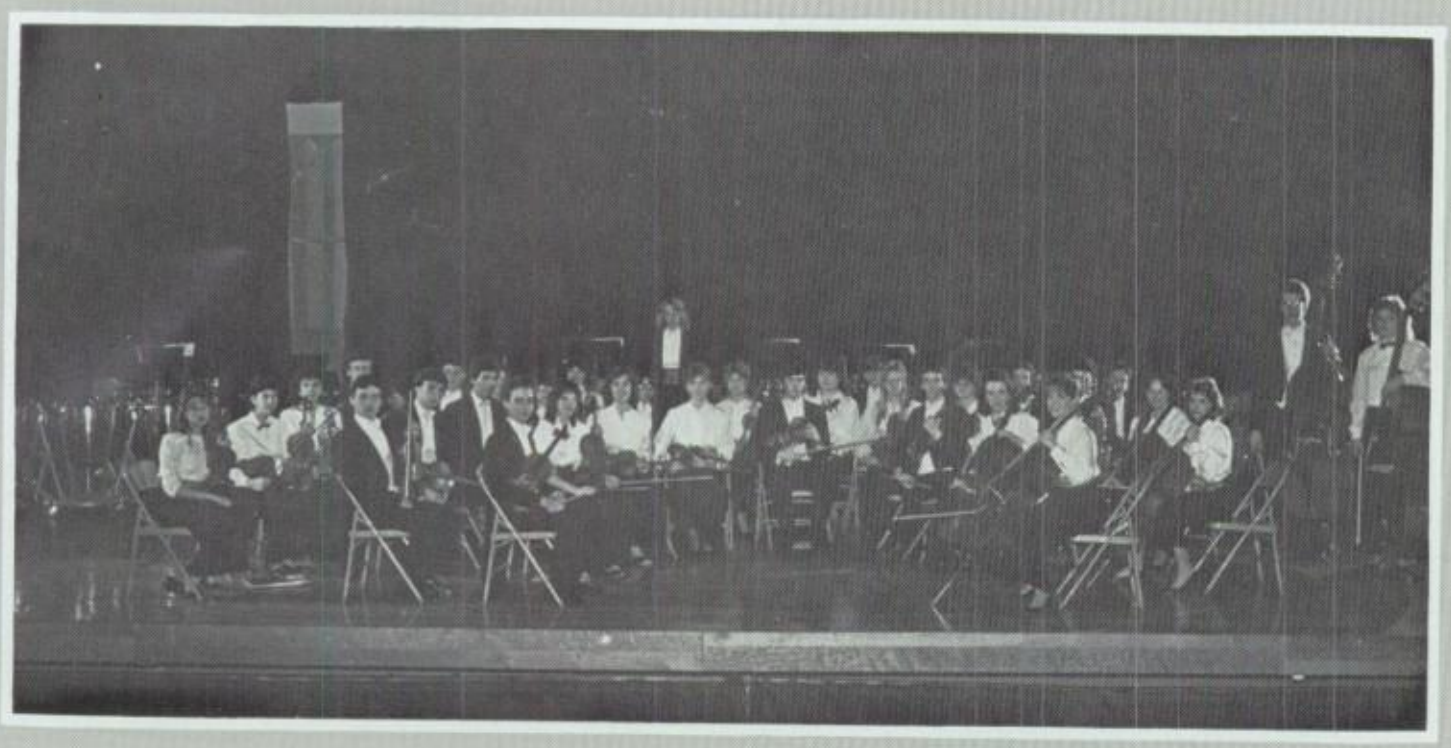
48th Street Players Go To Chicago And Bring Back Another Silver Medal



Winnetonka's 48th Street Players, the school's orchestra, made their second trip to Chicago for its International Music Festival. Last summer, the orchestra brought home a silver medal, the festival's highest reward for a job well done. This year, the orchestra shone once again and brought home another silver medal for the trophy case. That feat lands them in the top 21 percent of orchestras internationally.

This year the symphonic band joined the orchestra in its trek to the Windy City and brought home a bronze medal for its effort.

Orchestra students going to State contest this year were: David Stockman (violin and viola), Gretchen Foxe (a violin duet with Stockman), and Sam Hughes (violin). All were awarded II ratings.

A Cappella Choir

Before every home football game the A Cappella Choir, accompanied by the marching band, performs the national anthem followed by the alma mater. Because of our wet homecoming, A Cappella was given the official word "not to march in the parade." But because of their strong school spirit, many of the choir members went ahead and marched in the parade, despite the rain, to show their school spirit.

On October 21, all of the choirs combined gave a Fall Frolic in the auditorium. This began the year with a light, fun, carefree concert. The next formal concert was the holiday concert on December 18. This was filled with holiday cheer and more traditional Christmas carols. The combined concert choirs/mixed choruses had a string octet accompany them on a piece by Haydn to add a special touch to this concert.

The traditional alumni caroling took place despite the fact that Mrs. Peterson was a new teacher not knowing most of the alumni. The schedule was tight as A Cappella departed Winnetonka after school for the Bethal Neighborhood Center. While there, they sang carols with the children and gave out presents. The choir ate dinner on route to the Hyatt, where they sang for people there. Next they went on to sing in Crown Center and on the Plaza at Penguin Square. They concluded the day's events at McMurray Methodist Church for their own candlelight service.

District Contest is the main event for the choir. This is held at William Jewell; and large choirs, small ensembles, and soloists compete for the I rating. There were forty vocalists who received a I or II rating at District. From there, the nineteen people who received I's at District went to the state competition in Columbia, where they continued in the Winnetonka Pride tradition.

The final concert of the year was on May 14 and was a special one because the orchestra was featured by combining with A Cappella to put on the Schubert Mass in G. Winnetonka has many fine musicians, and those are what are needed to perform such a large work.

A Cappella sang at Baccalaureate this year. They sang a special song entitled "Seek Wisdom", which was dedicated to Ms. Peterson and the '85-'86 A Cappella choir.

The choirs also had the opportunity to host two college choirs: the Sioux Falls College Choir and the South Dakota State University Choir. Both gave concerts at Winnetonka, and the SDSU choir spent the night in some of the members:' homes.

One of the highlights was the choir tour. On November 14, A Cappella left for Springfield, MO., where they spent two active days. Friendships and strong ties were made between the members. They heard two high schools sing, one college choir, a musical, and sang in four concerts. But, better yet, they had fun!

Spectrum made a Special trip to Maryville, Mo. for a swing choir competition.

"We had a good season. It perhaps could have been a better one. We had a good team effort. I thought we played our best ballgame against Oak Park . . ."

HEAD COACH DAN STANLEY

1985 was a successful season for the Winnetonka football team. The Griffins posted a 6-4 record and finished third in the Suburban Mid-Six Conference with a 3-2 mark.

Perhaps their greatest moment was a 28-13 thrashing of archrival Oak Park in which the Griffins' new wishbone offense performed excellently as Mike McCall, Donovan Owens and David Nowak all had fine rushing performances. On the night, the 'bone cranked out over 200 yards.

The Winnetonka defense was a force all season long, giving up only 98 points. They were at their best in the season's first two games' posting consecutive shutouts against Springfield Parkview and North Kansas City as the Griffins totalled 49 points in the victories.

After losing to Park Hill for the first time in school history the Griffins roared back to win three consecutive conference games by a cummulative score of 66-34. The first of these wins was an 18-13 Homecoming triumph over Hickman Mills. Next was a 27-12 offensive shootout with William Chrisman in which both Nowak and Owens rushed for over 100 yards. Raytown South was the toughest team the Griffins defeated all season. In this game, they won a defensive struggle 21-9 when both Bobby McGuire and Chris Mihlfeld scored touchdowns while the defense was on the field.

The Griffins had a chance to qualify for the state playoffs with a victory over either Raytown or Grandview, but came up short on both occasions, losing to the Blue Jays 10-0 and dropping a 24-19 verdict to the Bulldogs. Against Grandview, the Griffins led until the final quarter but could not stop a late Bulldog drive.

In post-season honors, the Griffins placed Mike Rookstool, Todd Thompson and Bobby McGuire on the All-Conference squads. Rookstool also made All-Metro and All-State teams.

Varsity Griffins To 6-4 Season

"We were undefeated conference champions, so we had a very successful season. Travis Anderes was outstanding as were Carey Hiatt and Mike Newton."

-COACH BILL LINDSAY-

The 1985 sophomore football team, led by head coach Bill Lindsay and assistant coach Terry Stevens, had an excellent season, winning the Suburban Mid-Six Conference championship by going undefeated in the conference. The Griffins finished with an overall mark of 7-2.

An outstanding offensive performance was turned in by quarterback Travis Anderes. Travis threw for over 700 yards and completed over 55 percent of his passes. The sophomores' leading receivers were Doug Drottz, Kirk McCabe and Todd Schriefels. While rushing the ball, the sophs were led by John Ross and Mike Newton.

Defensively, with a few exceptions, most noteably Carry Hiatt, who recovered 9 fumbles, the same players were standouts. Also proving outstanding were Danny Bribiesca, Eric Carpenter and Darryl Farmer.

Sophomore, Freshman Teams

The 1985 freshman football team enjoyed an excellent season. The boys posted a 4-2-1 record for coaches Hank Reese and Mike Sneed.

The team was undefeated after 5 games and then had a week off because of a forfeit, which they weren't able to recover from. Their next opponent was Liberty, who Coach Reese called "our toughest opponent besides Park Hill North." The Blue Jays defeat-Winnetonka 14-8. The following week the Griffins lost to Park Hill North to conclude the season.

"Based on our talent, our season was successful. Anytime you have a winning record, you've had a good season. The record exceeded our expectations."

Outstanding performers from the freshmen were linemen Jud Brungardt and Jim Turney and a pair of transfer students, Jeff Griffitt and Gary Tyler, of whom Reese said, "Without them, our season wouldn't have been nearly as successful."

"Based on the talent on hand, our season was successful. Any time you have a winning record, you've had a good season. The record exceeded our expectations because this group had a little trouble adjusting to our system."

- COACH GIANNOLA

This year's varsity soccer team was made up mainly of young players. This made the team more inexperienced. Although the team was young, they did manage to defeat several good teams.

The team began the season playing as individuals, but by the end of the season they played as a unit, helping to dramatically improve their defense.

Some of the team's outstanding performers were: Jimmy Blake, who scored 8 goals; Lincoln Roblee, 5 goals: David Sullivan, 4 goals;

These players, along with others, contributed to the team's success. Among the team's better games were a 2-2 tie with Blue Springs, and a pair of 2-1 victories over Oak Park and William Chrisman.

Commenting on the soccer team's season, Coach Don Giannola said, "Since the team was very young, next year should be good because of the experience attained this year."

This was a very enjoyable year for our Cross Country Teams. They were fun to work with, they worked hard, and all of the kids experienced some success during the season.

-COACH WES WHALEY-

The 1985 Cross country boys didn't have a successful season winning wise, but the boys improved drastically. It was basically a rebuilding year for the boys as they worked hard and made progress throughout the year.

The boys finished 5th in the Conference and 9th at District. Leading the team this year was a junior, Ryan Rube. He placed 9th at District and was All Conference, District, and Northland.

The Freshmen runners were exceptional, they were ranked 3rd in the Kansas City area. The freshmen boys were extremely aggressive and look very promising. Some of the leading runners were Jason Rinker, Chris George, Mike Farr, and Mike Lawrence.

Coach Whaley is looking for a very strong team next year. His strength coming from some of his returning Varsity runners, Ryan Rube, Lou Gilbert, Damon Rheuport, Mark Roberts, and John Otis. Returning from J. V. will be Phil Moziengo, Troy Mihalko, Eric Dwyer, Brett Watts, and Todd Underwood.

The 1985 Girls Cross Country team had an outstanding season. They surprised many people as they finished first in their Conference, fifth in the District, and number six in the city.

Leading the Griffin attack was a junior, Michelle Roberts. Michelle was all Conference, District, Sectional, Northland, and first team All Metro. She was also a state qualifier and finished 43rd at the state meet. Another leader was Becky Hueser who was all Conference and all Northland. Linda Lemos and Leslie Hernandez were also Northland runners.

A lot of hard work and effort amounted to an extremely fine season for the Lady Griffins. Looking forward to next year, Coach Whaley hopes to equal this years performance or better it. The team is losing two very important parts of the team, seniors, Staci Meyers and Brandi Allard. Returning next year will be Michelle Roberts, Becky Hueser, Leslie Hernandez, Linda Lemos, and all of the others who contributed to a fine season.

COACH HOLWICK

The Winnetonka varsity volleyball team's record didn't show the determination and the goals that were set. The team's spirits were never down. They went out to win every time and every game brought improvement. The team was led by five Seniors: Cindy Allsbury, who was the team's leading server, putting 189 out of 190 serves into play; Diane Brooks' a consistent player until her injury; Jill Freeman went from an all-around player to a defensive specialist; Mary Roderick, an excellent player coming off the bench, who always came through; and Cheryl Wolf, a good all-around player who never let up in hustle and desire. The team played as one, everyone got along. This attitude brought many close matches against conference teams, such as- highly ranked Hickman Mills. The Winnetonka Griffins forced the Cougars into three games, losing the third 14-16.

The girls won some important games in the Winnetonka Tournament such as against ranked Raytown. Coach Holwick's first season may not have shown improvement by the record, but it did on the court in the ability of the players.

s High For Lady Griffins

The season was successful in the fact that we met a very important goal, gaining the respect of other coaches and others involved in the sport.

The win/loss record was not as good as was hoped for, but the attitude of the J.V. volleyball team was impressive. The team never let down in hustle and desire. This brought many close conference matches and a win against the Ray South Cardinals. There were no real star players; the team played as one which made everyone a star player.

The girls played as hard in practice as they did in games, with this every game brought improvement in the ability of the players. The entire program gained respect in the eyes of area coaches and others involved in volleyball. This was a big goal and one that was met. This was the cherry on top of a greatly improved J.V. volleyball team.

Much Improvement To J.V.

The boys' tennis team had one of its finest seasons in 1986. After losing the first four matches, the tennis team had a ten game winning streak. During this streak, the team won the Mid-6 conference tournament and was also named Mid-6 conference champs.

Under new head coach Joe Wendt, the number of players rose drastically. Twenty-one students came out for the tennis team this season.

Coach Wendt did most of the recruiting himself. Among the recruits were Kyle McCune and Bob Sharpe. These two players teamed together in doubles. They came in fourth in the District tournament, which was played at St. Joe.

This year's girls' tennis team did quite well. Mrs. Johnson was surprised that the varsity's record was so good because only one player with varsity experience played tennis this year. That was the number one player, Brenda Smith. Brenda's record was 12 wins and 2 losses in dual meets. She was second in the district and qualified for the state tournament. Lurleen Kennedy was a strong competitor to beat, also.

Injuries kept Tracy Herrington and Debbie Allee from developing to their maximum potential, but Bethany Zaiger and Lisa Vogelbaugh helped the team. Mrs. Johnson hopes to see Kim Morris and Arlene Herrera on next year's varsity squad. At the end of the season, the varsity team had 11 wins, 4 losses; the JV team had 10 wins, 5 losses.

"They had a very good season this year; I was proud of them." - Don Giannola

This year the Winnetonka Wrestling team did quite well. They finished second in the city and second at District. They not only set school records, but team and individual records also. A few of the records set were: Kevin Mercer-most pins, Bobby Burrows-most escapes, Bill Hampton-fastest pin at the time of :14 seconds. Matt Lee did an outstanding job for his first year on the team. He wrestled Varsity most of the season. As a freshman, he had 14 pins and has racked up a total of 362 team points. Matt was the only freshman this year to qualify for the state tournament. His overall record was 26-9. Matt tied with Chris Mihlfeld for having the most major decisions. John Jackson, Bobby Burrows, Archie Allen, Mike Ewing, and Kevin Mercer will be leaving this year. Their shoes will be hard to refill, but Junior Varsity wrestlers were looking pretty tough. The places they take next year will not only be rough but sometimes humiliating. They will also have to work twice as hard to beat these records next year.

Usual Success On Mats

Chris Mihlfeld, junior, went to state his first time this year. It has taken him three years and several tough matches to get there. He has set several records since he has been wrestling. Starting as freshmen he worked his way up to Varsity material. He worked hard on the mats everyday after school with Coach Giannola.

This year Chris' record was 29-1. Chris wrestled many seniors, but he did not let the age of his opponents intimidate him into losing, because Chris is not considered a quitter. You would almost have to have this attitude to go to state. As Chris worked his way through the season his strategy kept getting better, but along with that his matches started getting harder. He went to state with only one loss, to a Park Hill wrestler, by decision. All of this determination that Chris had, won him the title of 155 lb. State Champion.

Most of the first-year freshmen wrestled J.V. which gave the freshmen great experience that will help them in the long run. Many of their individual records were not too high, but then again, most of them did not wrestle but one or two times the whole season.

The biggest problem they had was the line up. If a varsity wrestler gets hurt, a stronger J.V. wrestler moves up in that place which in turn makes J.V. weaker. On the other hand, they did well in tournaments because there is not a Varsity place to move up to if someone is injured.

This year's varsity boy's basketball team had a dream season, finishing 22-7, and nearly making a trip to Columbia and the State Class 4A Final Four.

Four players for the Griffins averaged in double figures in scoring. Brian Williams and Rodney Parks averaged 15 points per game, David Hauschild averaged over 13 points per game and Robert Taylor averaged over 11 points per game.

Hauschild also led the team in rebounding, and, along with Scott Dusenberry, who Head Coach Dennis McClain called a "real key to the team's success," keyed the team's defensive play.

In tournaments, the boys were outstanding, winning the North Kansas City Tournament and finishing runner-up to Lee's Summit in the Winnetonka Tournament. They then topped their season off by capturing the school's first basketball District championship by defeating Northeast by 10 points. In their opening District game, they set a school record for scoring in a 100-72 annihilation of North Kansas City.

The Griffins advanced to the state quarterfinals by defeating St. Joe Central 69-67 in overtime in the sectional matchup.

The boys experienced a disappointing finish to their season, losing to Rockhurst 73-71 with no time remaining on the clock when an official called a questionable foul on the Griffins.

The team virtually rewrote school scoring records during the season. They broke records for most points scored in a season (2075), field goals attempted (1659), field goals made (807), free throws attempted (670), free throws make (461), offensive rebounds (450), assists (523), and also set a record for defensive rebounds (637) for a school record 1087 total rebounds.

Record Setting Year

Many individual records fell as well. David Hauschild set records for most offensive rebounds (113), defensive rebounds (158) and total rebounds (271). Gary Watts set a record for most assists in a season (152). Career wise, Brian Williams became Winnetonka's no. 2 all-time leading scorer with 933 points and No. 1 rebounder with 639.

Five players make the All-Conference team. Brian Williams, David Hauschild and Rodney Parks made 1st Team and Robert Taylor and Gary Watts made Honorable Mention. Although he didn't make any all-conference teams, Coach McClain mentioned Scott Dusenberry as having an outstanding season as well.

Commenting on his team's season, Coach McClain said, "It was the most unforgettable season I have ever had, no only in terms of the won-lost record, but also in terms of accomplishments in regard to unifying the school, to see them come together, support the team and display tremendous enthusiasm at our games. I feel also the season was rewarding to the coaching staff in regards to the way players developed and matured as individuals.

"The highlights that I remember are winning the NKC Tournament, beating Grandview, Raytown and Raytown South at Winnetonka, scoring 100 points to break the school scoring record and winning the District championship for the first time.

"I'll also remember the assembly we had. It was the highlight of my coaching career at Winnetonka. Watching the spirit and the spontaneous cheering for the team was an exciting experience for the whole student body."

JV Team Goes 10-6

The 1985-86 boys' Junior Varsity basketball team finished their season with a very successful 10-6 record. The Griffins finished 5-5 in conference.

Coach Joe Wendt, in his first season, stated, "Overall, the team showed a great deal of improvement. At the first of the season, I thought we were to short to be competitive but we brought up Lou Gilbert and Carey Hiatt from the sophomore team and got Kenny Sneed back from injury. Those players, and improvement from within filled up the slack.

"At one time we had a six game winning streak in the middle of the season, and then we lost a couple of close games, or our record would have been better."

Coach Wendt went on to say that even though he enjoyed having a good record, as a JV coach he looked at the team's improvement toward becoming varsity players as his main concern. He felt they made signifigant strides as a group towards replacing the four departed seniors from this year's varsity squad.

Individually, Lou Gilbert and Trent Gehrke led the team in scoring with an average of 13 points per game. Gilbert, along with Carey Hiatt, led the team in rebounding also, averaging nearly 10 boards a game. Defensively, Kyle McCuen, Bob Shape and Tim Silvers were excellent.

Sophomores, Freshmen Learn Fundamentals

The sophomore boys' basketball team finished the 1985-86 season with a 9-8 record despite having roster changes all season, with key players moving back and forth between the sophomore and JV levels.

The Griffins, who under the leadership of Coach Tom Baker posted a 4-1 record against Northland competition, were led in scoring by Eric Carpenter and defensively by Todd Schriefels and Keith Zimmerle.

The sophomores used many different starting combinations, as all but two players started at least one game.

Coach Baker said of his team, "We had a real good year. Eric Carpenter became a real good player particularly. They improved from under .500 as freshmen.

"They were a real talented squad. This group should combine next year with this year's team and make a dream come true on the road to Columbia."

Top picture — The sophomores on the basketball court this year were: (kneeling) Steve Kidwell, Kendall Kirk, Christian Garcia, Coach Tom Baker, (standing) Doug Drottz, Eric Carpenter, Keith Zimmerle, Mike Payne, Brandon Norwat, Carey Hiatt, Todd Schreifels, Mike Newton, Mike Rottinghaus. "Despite their problems, the girls improved greatly at the end of the year. We had everybody playing to their potential."

The 1985-86 girls' varsity basketball team overcame adversity all season to nearly qualify for the sectional tournament.

The girls lost Brenda Smith and Michelle Newton for most of the season, and had only 15 girls on the Varsity and JV teams.

Despite their problems, the girls, in Coach Bill Linsay's opinion, "improved greatly at the end of the year. We had everybody playing to their potential. I think you want your last game to be your best and I thought we played super in our last two games."

The Lady Griffins, though finishing with a regular season record of 5-17, crushed Northeast 64-44 in their first district game. They then almost knocked off an excellent Northtown team in the championship game, falling by 3 points.

Individually, Melissa Patton made 1st Team All-Conference and led the team in scoring with 229 points. Tammy Hauschild, the girls' leading rebounder, made Honorable Mention All-Conference along with Mary Ann Lawrence and Rebecca Atkins. Also during the season, Kris Allen, a freshman, set a school single season record by hitting 64% of her free-throws.

Career wise, Brenda Smith set a school steals record with 140 and finished 4th on the all-time scoring list with 443 points. Melissa Patton finished her career 9th all-time in scoring with 268 points.

Coach Lindsay's Last Season

"Despite our shortage of players the girls came out and worked hard and played up to their ability in every game."

The 1985-86 girls had a difficult season because of the shortage of players that tried out.

Because of the number of girls on the team every girl saw plenty of playing time. Also, many of the junior varsity players moved up to play their remaining quarters with the small varsity squad.

Despite their small numbers the J.V. squad opened their season with a crushing defeat over Ruskin, 65 to 16. But, from there on the girls were plagued with trouble. They lost center, Michelle Newton, for the season, and then Lynn Schaurpels due to a transfer. This left the ladies with an even smaller number on the team. To over come the problem Coach Easter brought up some of the freshman team to add some depth to the J.V.

Despite all of the girls problems they ended the season on a winning note with a three game winning streak.

"Considering everything against us this team improved tremendously. They had no experience; and they got blown out. By the end of the season, we were contenders."

The freshman girls' basketball team can be characterized by one word: short. The girls were short on depth, short on height and short in the win column. However, they were not short on determination, desire and hustle.

Coach Laura Catron commented, "Considering everything against us, this team improved tremendously. They had no experience, and at the beginning of the season they got blown out. By the end of the season, we were contenders. We almost upset Park Hill South in their own tournament."

She further stated, "A lack of depth killed us (the girls only had 9 players). We would maybe go into the 3rd or 4th quarter with a lead, but we didn't have the girls to put in. Also, our tallest girl was 5'7. We had a team of guards. The girls were fast and had a lot of quickness, but couldn't get high percentage shots and therefore no rebounding. If we had either ingredient, we could have been a .500 team.

Another factor that hurt the girls was the lack of depth on the Varsity and JV levels. This forced the better freshman girls, such as Kris Allen and Kathey Dunlap, to be moved up.

Coach Catron said in closing, "It's one thing to win, another to enjoy. Our record (0-12) wasn't much, but you have to look at the improvement. The girls have nothing to be ashamed of, they can look forward to next year."

The 1986 baseball team's season was the most productive in school history. The boys captured the conference championship along with district, sectional and quarterfinal titles in addition to conquering the Pony Express Tournament. At printing time, the Griffins were on their way to the Class 4A State Championship final four in Columbia, Missouri.

During the season, the boys captured the Mid-Six Conference championship by posting a 9-1 league record, marred only by a narrow 2-0 loss to Raytown. Overall, Winnetonka was 21-4 at printing time, including victories over Big-Six Conference champ Blue Springs and 14-3, 11-2 and 11-3 victories in St. Joeseph en route to the Pony Express title. The championship game was particularly satisfying, coming over arch-rival Oak Park. Chris Mihlfeld and Kenny Sneed hit homeruns for the Griffins and Mike Rookstool was the winning pitcher, throwing a complete game.

Other highlights during the season included a sterling 1-0 shutout by Mike Rookstool over Oak Park in the state quarterfinals, a 3-1 comeback victory over Ruskin behind Eric Carpenter, a 10-0 shutout over Northeast for the district title, Kenny Sneed's seventh inning conference clinching homerun against Raytown South and Jim Millsap's no-hitter against Grandview.

Varsity Griffins Travel To State

Among the outstanding performers for Winnetonka during the season were Mike Brookshier, Chris Mihlfeld and Mike Rookstool, who hit over .400 and the sparkling defense of Scott Dusenbery and Garry Watts in the middle of the infield. Chris Velasquez, Mihlfeld and Rookstool combined for 15 homeruns during the season. Pitching-wise, Rookstool was again outstanding, posting a 5-2 record and keeping his earned run average below 2.00. Other pitchers having good seasons were Eric Carpenter (5-1), David Wilson (4-0) and Jim Millsap (4-0).

Winnetonka placed a record 11 players on the All-Conference team: Mike Rookstool, Mike Brookshier, David Wilson, Eric Carpenter, Scott Dusenbery, Garry Watts, Kenny Sneed, Mike McCall, Pat McCune and James Millsap. Many of these players earned All-Northland honors as well.

The JV baseball team, led by Coach Kent Hastings in his last season, had an incredible season. The Griffins won the Mid-Six Conference championship with an unblemished 10-0 mark and finished 13-1 overall, with only a loss to Oak Park in a season-closing doubleheader marring a perfect season.

"I thought the main element in our drive to the conference championship was outstanding defensive play to compliment excellent pitching by Rob Lewis, Lou Gilbert, Todd Schreifels and Eric Carpenter. This is not to say, however, that our hitting was not exceptional also," stated coach Hastings when asked to assess his team's season.

Two of the pitchers that coach Hastings mentioned, Schreifels and Gilbert, added to the glory of the JV season by pitching no-hitters within a week of each other.

The JV was loaded so heavily with talent that players such as Eric Carpenter, Todd Schreifels and Trent Gehrke earned a good deal of varsity playing time.

The freshman baseball team, under the direction of Coach Terry Stevens, had a somewhat difficult season, but still managed to come within a shade of finishing .500. The team went 5-6.

Coach Stevens said about his team, "They played hard but lacked concentration and intensity. The difference between this team and last year's team was primarily defense. Our pitching was good, but our defense was inconsistent."

Coach Stevens singled out outfielder Chris Whittaker, designated hitter Chad Price, and David Sullivan, the team's leading hitter for praise.

Some of the other players who contributed the most to the team's success were Keith Korte, Ladd Imm and Todd Foley. Perhaps the freshman team's best player, however, was shortstop-pitcher Eddie Lewis.

Beating nearly everyone they came in contact with, the varsity boys track team's season in a word: awesome.

Thirteen runners were good enough this year to qualify for the state tournament. That was just one of the school records sets this year. Among the records set & state qualifiers were:

3200 meter relay: Greg Johnson, Ryan Rube, Scott Castro, Mike Newton, Mark Roberts, Curtis New

1600 meter relay: Newton, Roberts, Carl Gray, Milford Morgan, Castro, Gary Tyler

800 meter relay: Reggie Parks, Robert Taylor, Gray, Morgan, Newton, Keith

And then there was the high jump. Triple-threat Steve Duke, who was known to sweep the jumping events at some of the meets this year, sailed over the high jump bar at the district meet in Blue Springs. The seven ft. mark was a personal best and tied the district record. If of course was good enough to get him to state. At the state tourney, Duke again took first place honors with a 6 ft. 10 in. jump. After that, he attempted 7'2" but failed.

The 800 meter relay team finished fifth at state, the runners' best showing.

The team was coached by Pete Hager.

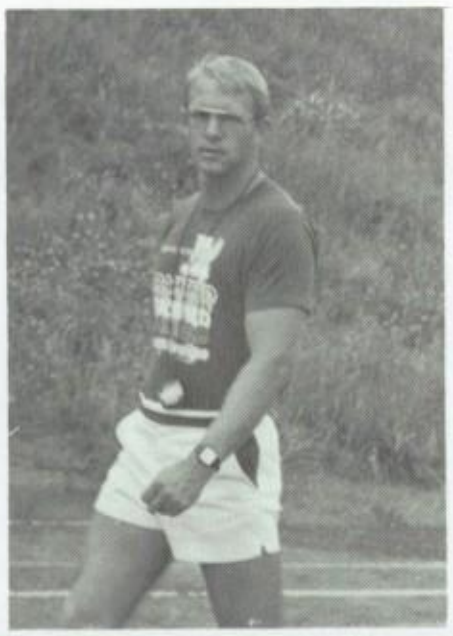
Record 13 Runners For State Meet



The varsity girls' track team had difficulty all season in their dual meets, as well as at the conference meet in Lee's Summit. At the same time, the junior varsity girls were able to pull it all together and win several of their dual meets during the season.

One of the few bright spots on the varsity team came as no surprise in the form of Michelle Roberts. Michelle qualified for state earlier in the year during Cross Country season. She went to sectionals in Raytown during track season in the 3200 and 1600 meter runs.

Other ladies who contributed to the team, either varsity of JV,

This year's golf team, under Coach James Myers, met some stiff competition and finished the season with 2 wins and 8 losses in conference dual meets.

Tournament play was just as disappointing for the Griffins, whose best showing was the junior varsity's second place tie in the conference tournament. The varsity placed fifth.

Lettermen this year were Brian Imhoff (Sr.) who averaged just 5.3 strokes over par and was frequently Winnetonka's medalist; Brady Nelson (Jr.) averaging 10.2 strokes over par; and Gary Bryant (Soph.) with 10.8 strokes over par.

Provisional letters were awarded to Steve Kidwell, Chris Port, John Ross and Brian Taylor, all sophomores.

Despite the poor showing this year, Coach Myers remains optimistic for next season due to a large number of returning underclassmen.

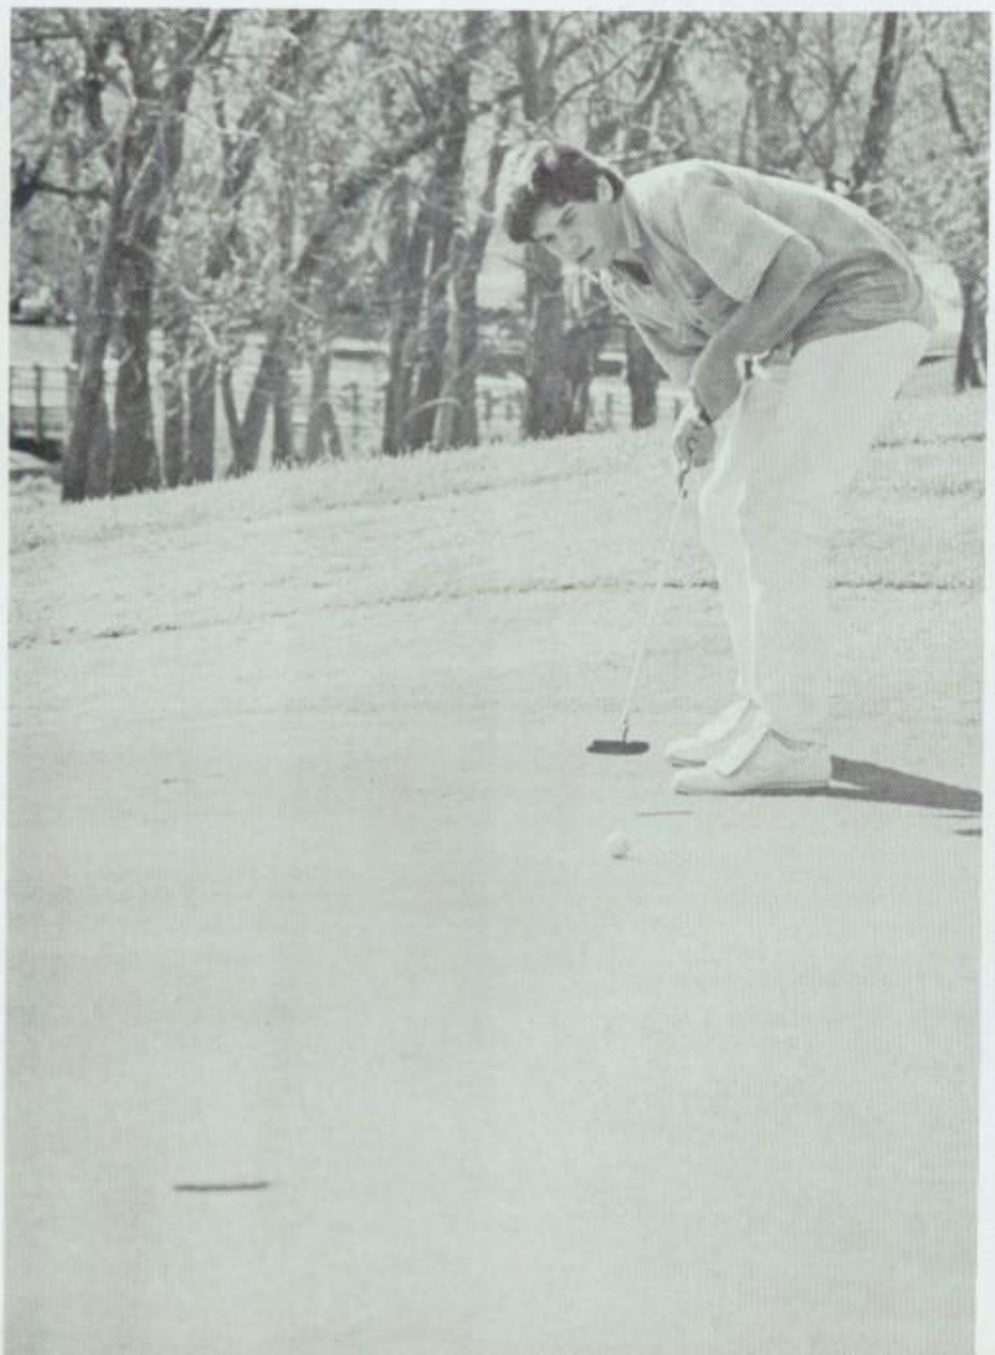
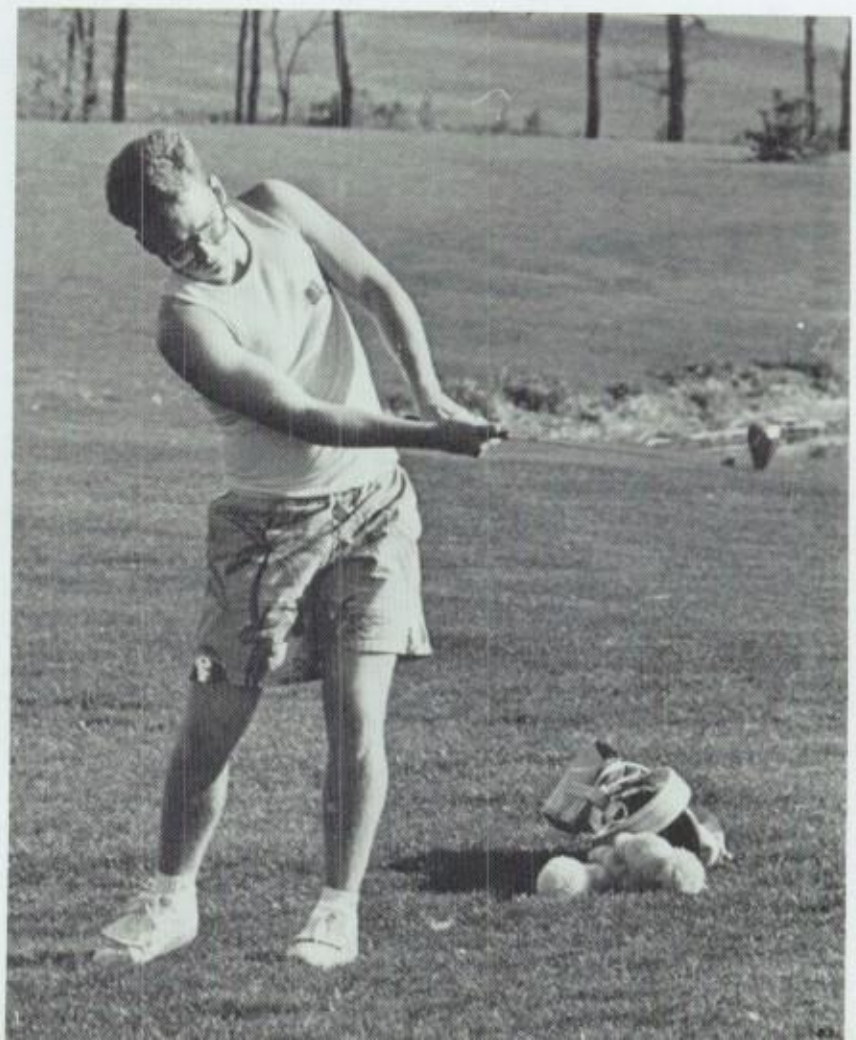
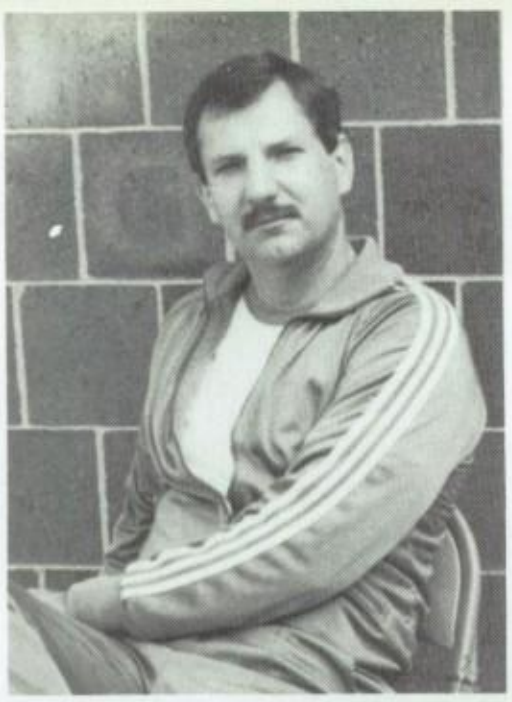
Conference Play







"The Griffins had a good team with many fine players, but never could get the pieces of the puzzle to fit."
-Coach McClain

The varsity softball team's record was not as successful as hoped for because of plauging injuries and other factors, but heads were always held high as determination kept the team going. The Griffins were led by hitting stars Lisa Vogelbaugh (.324), Francine Garcia (.313), Kris Allen (.389), and Melissa Patton (.304). Lisa Vogelbaugh led the team in put outs with 89 and had a fielding percentage of .944. She had 46 plate appearances striking out only once. Francine Garcia led the team in walks with 19 and doubles. Melissa Patton led the team in hits with 21. Lisa Cusick led the team in RBI's and Mary Ann Lawrence scored the most runs. The team showed much improvement with each passing game. By defeating #4 ranked Hickman Mills and #5 ranked Park Hill, then pounding Fort Osage, Winnetonka, Showed its potential. The Griffins had a good team with many fine players, but never could get the pieces of the puzzle to fit.

"The J.V. softball team was a young team, but quick learner as they dominated most teams."
-Coach Lindsay

The J.V. Softball team was a young team, but quick learners as they put together a thirteen game winning streak. The J.V. was known as the "mudders" for their great playing ability in bad weather. The Griffin defense was un-stopable with a great outfield and infield and pitchers Lisa Huff and Stacey Hughes. The Griffin offense was just as hot as they pounded out run after run. The Griffins defeated each opponent with a dominating offense. The Griffins had a successful season and showed hope for many more as they develope.

The Freshmen softball team, coached by Diana Easter, had only three games in which they lost. There was much improvement from these girls in each game. The freshmen were very enthusiastic and willing to practice hard to improve for future years.

Jennie Rickett, Sr.
Co-Captain

Robin Roland, Sr.

Chris Crooks, Sr.
Co-Captain

Lisa Larison, Jr.

Tracy Rigg, Sr.

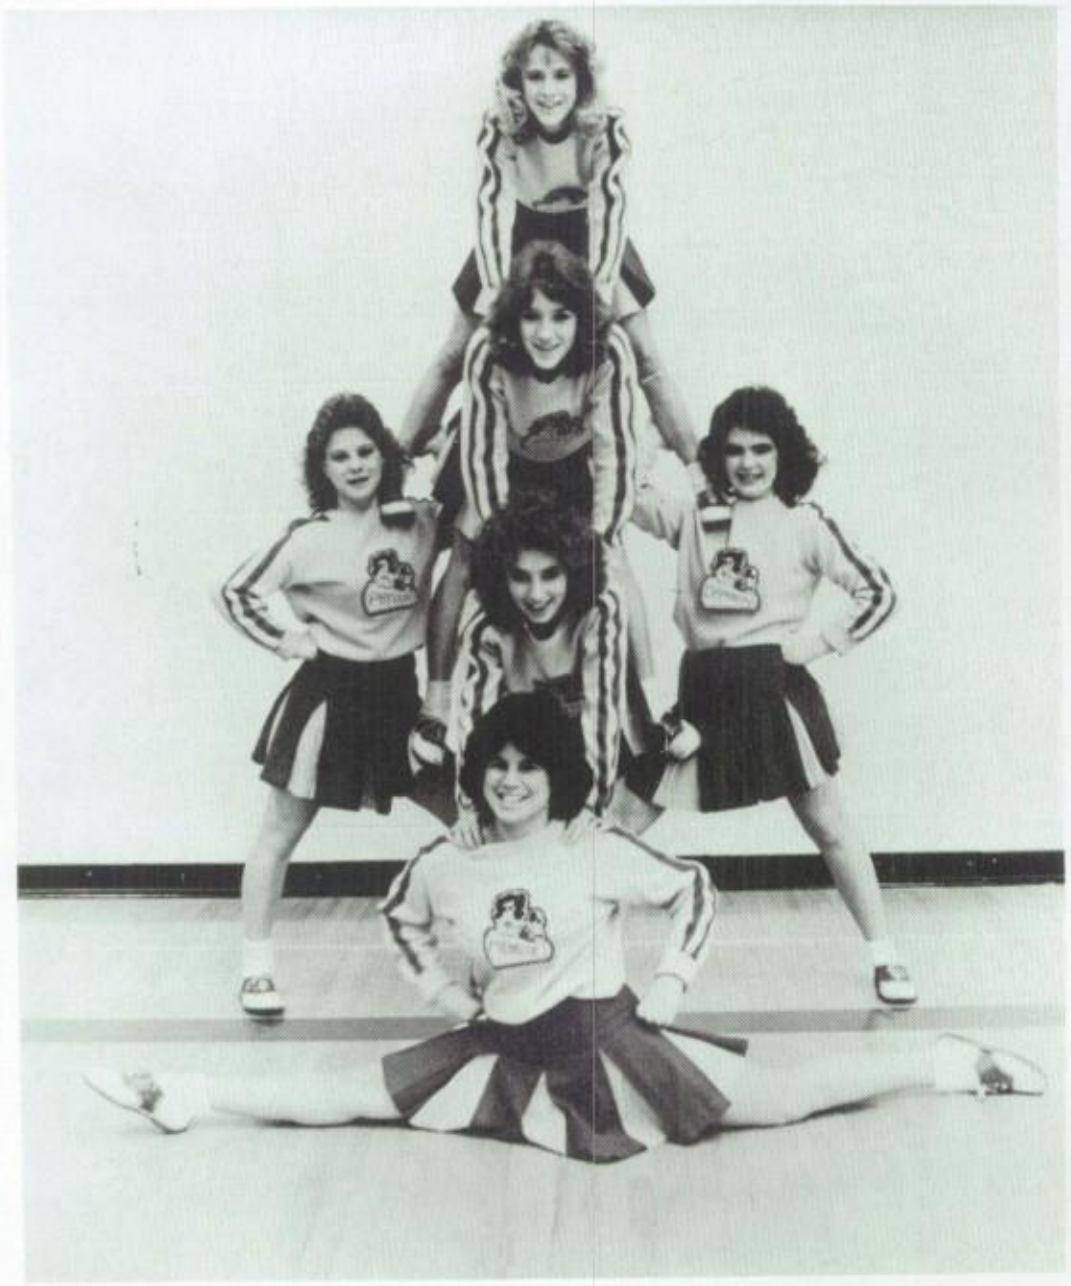
Karen Smith, Jr.

The 1985-86 Varsity Cheerleaders have been an excellent Osquad excelling in talent, spirit and enthusiasm. This year's squad attended ana NCA camp at Maryville. They received the highest award given to a squad, the Spirit Award, and were runners-up for Grand Champs.

Also at Summer Camp, Christine Crooks was chosen as All-American Cheerleaders, the highest honor an individual can receive. Lisa Lariso was also nominated for this award.

This year's sponsors were Ms. Lynne Hider (in center of picture below) and Ms. Julie Crooks.

JV, Sophomore And Freshman Cheerleaders



The 1985-86 Junior Varsity Cheerleaders also attended the NCA Summer Camp at Maryville. The squad displayed excellent school spirit both at camp and throughout the year.

The Freshmen 1985-86 Cheerleaders were: Denise Bonocorso (captain) Tricia Thomas (co-captain), Larryn Lewis, Monica Ackley, Shannon DiMauro, Vicki Huetton.

Jamie Morehouse

Jamie was a friend to many of you here at school. Some of you have gone to school with him since kindergarten. You've grown to know and love him as a friend.

Jamie was an avid Royals baseball fan. He loved the sport whether to play or watch. In fact he played baseball since he was old enough for a team.

His friends at school knew a side of him his family rarely saw. An outgoing, happy, friendly kid. For years we saw him very shy, withdrawn, and at times pretty sad.

Having friends was the main source of his happiness the last couple months of his life. Jamie was able to experience friendship and love through his friends.

His last words known to us were to a good friend: "Thank you for being my friend."

I would like to thank all of you for being a friend to Jamie.

We owe you all so much for bringing a Jamie to us that we had never seen before. A Jamie we will always remember with love.

Although all the reasons behind his death will never be known we can only pray that he is at peace now.

We love you Jamie and will forever keep you in our hearts and minds.

Elana Llafet

Elana D. Llafet was born March 6, 1969 and lived in North Kansas City School District all her life until her death on July 14, 1985.

Elana attended Winnwood Elementary School and Eastgate Middle School.

Winnetonka educated Elana her ninth and tenth grade years. She was Wrestling Matmaid and lettered in it her tenth grade year. That same year Elana played on the tennis team.

Elana's hobbies included playing the organ, watching baseball games, and working with ceramics. She had planned on majoring in mathematics.

Her mother remembers Elana's favorite phrase: "Live every moment, love every day, because before you know it, precious time steps away."

Elana is greatly missed and her friendship will be with everyone forever.

Rain Lets Up For The Ritz'

Spirit week kicked off Homecoming this year, with red and gold day, sweats day, and the ritzy formal wear. Everyone, including the Freshmen participated in the festivities.

The assembly was held Friday, October 11, with Mrs. Searle and Mr. Krause introducing the candidates. Entertainment was provided by the pom-pon squad as they performed a 20's dance to 'Puttin' on the Ritz.'

The parade turned out great with the montage of cars and floats, even though the wet circumstances prevented the band from performing.

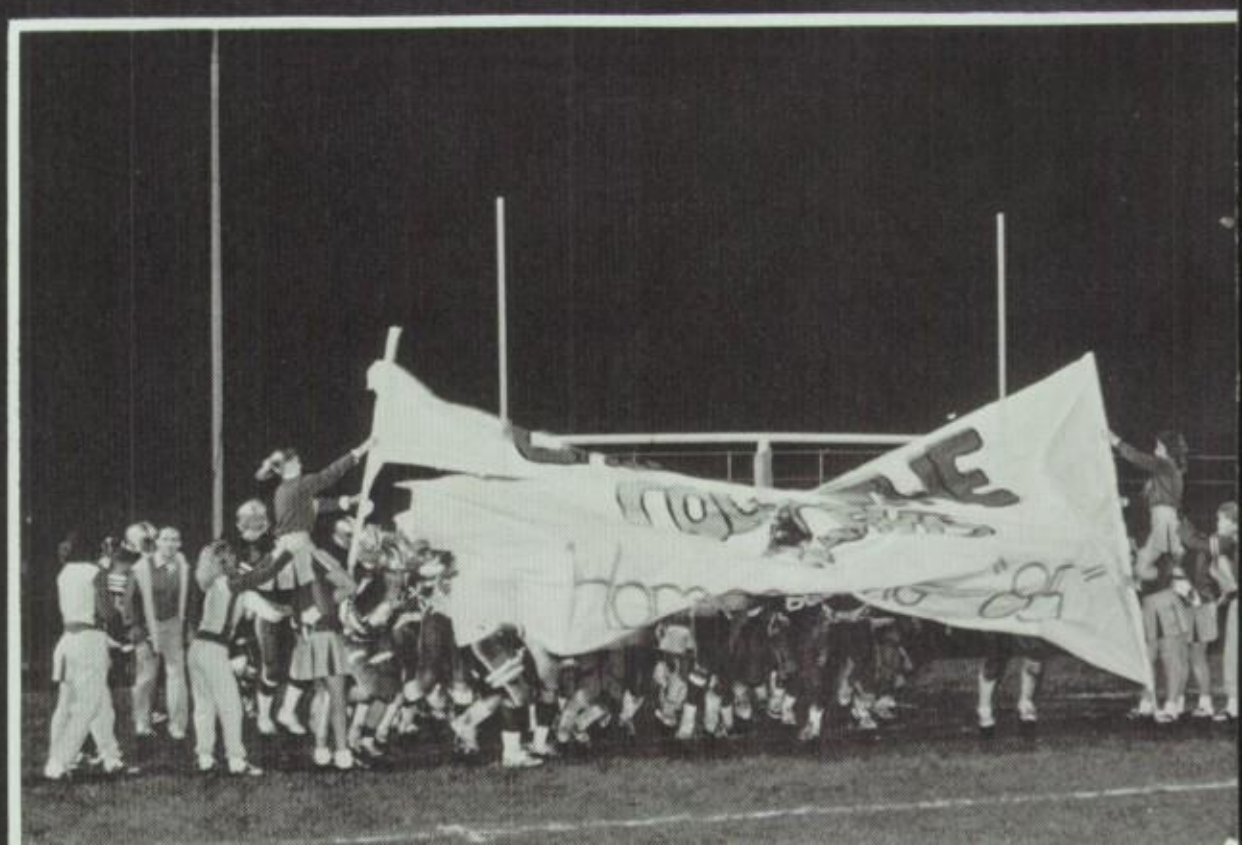
At 7:30 the same evening, the Griffins defeated the Hickman Mills Cougars 18-13. At half-time, Cheryl Wolf was crowned the ritzy queen and Kelly Bock, the princess:

The dance was held the next evening in the gym. It turned out a smash, with your very own take-home top hat with your and your date's name on them.

Even though the rain and clouds dampened the ground it didn't dampened the spirits.

These young ladies impatiently wait for a boy to escort them to the dance floor. Cheryl recieves a congratulation from her father.

The Griffins charge onto the field to begin the game.



Kelly enters the stadium at half-time.
These couples seem to be a bit distracted from the dance.
Cindy Gonzales shows her date a new routine.

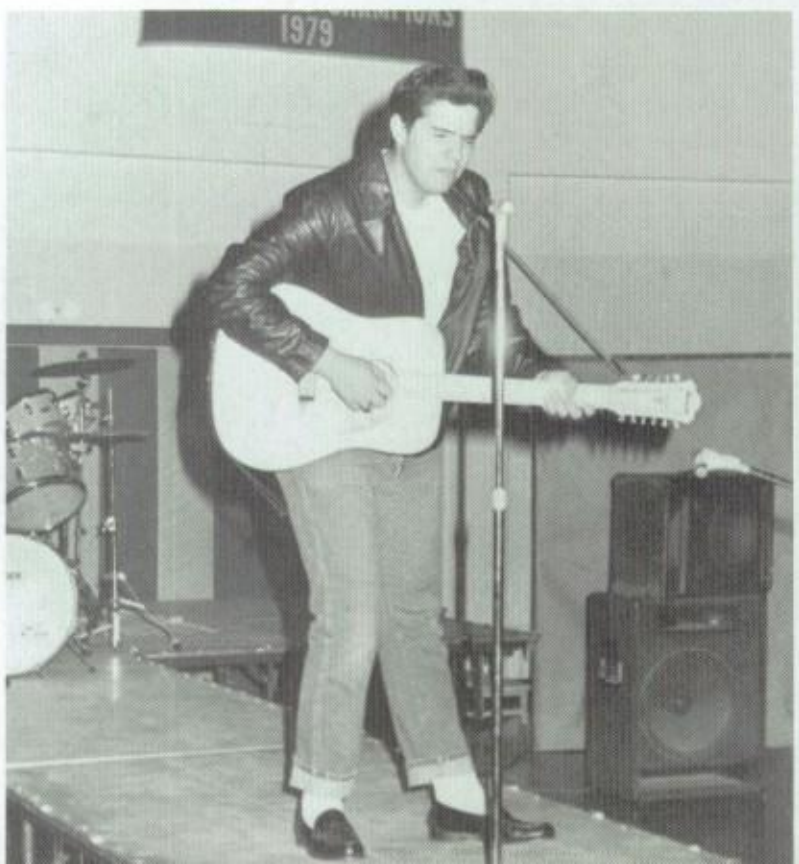
Yearbook Assembly Rocks Rafters

In the spirit of Pepsi's "Walk Through Rock" that appeared at Bartle Hall in the fall of 1985, the Odyssey staff provided the student body with glimpses of their own ideas on America's rich musical history.

Several Winnetonka students lip-synched to the tunes of Patti Page, Elvis Presley, Annette Funnicello, The Beatles, Shaun Cassidy, Stevie Nicks, Pat Benatar, Prince, Appolonia, KISS, and Bruce Springsteen. Perennial TV hosts, Dick Clark (Jeff Bledsoe) and Ed McMahon (Jim Millsap) did the emceeing.

Crowned Queen and King of the Odyssey were Tracy Rigg and Randy Jaeger. Prince and Princess were John Jackson and Diane Brooks. Back to crown the king and queen were last year's royalty, Jennifer Turner and Kevin DeBaene. Last year's princess and prince, LeRae Olds And Jack Nevins, were also on hand to crown their successors.

Over one thousand yearbooks were sold during a sales period that was extended a few days due to sluggish sales in the beginning.



Clockwise From Top: Sean Anderson and Corey Huntsucker portray Kiss. Last year's Odyssey Royalty crowns Randy Jaeger, Tracy Rigg, Diane Brooks, and John Jackson. Jill Freeman sings "Hit Me With Your Best Shot," a hit from Pat Benatar. Fans screamed as Elvis (Carl Ford) sang "Hound Dog".

Clockwise From Left: Shann Beeman (the crowd's favorite) portrayed Shaun Cassidy by singing, "Da Do Run Run". Sedric Jones enthralled the audience by playing Prince. The teachers began to bop as Annette Funnicello (Anita Cerverizzo) took them back to those swinging beach party days. Ed McMahon (James Millsap) and Dick Clark (Jeff Bledsoe) kept the show on the go by announcing the stars.

Sweetheart Dance "Almost Paradise"

As the sun went down, the lights went up in the W.H.S. gym on February 15. Guests began arriving at 8:00 p.m. to celebrate an evening of "Almost Paradise." Upon entering the gym they discovered a lovely transformation. Gone was the usual gymnasium image of coaches, gym classes, and sweaty jocks after practice. A lattice archway softly lit on a bed of cloud-like cotton provided a rather romantic way to enter the dance floor. Streamers cascaded from the ceiling, creating a pavillion for couples to dance under.

At 10:00 the annual tradition of crowning the Sweetheart King began. Joe Macaluso, Archie Allen, Chris Wilburn, Jeff Drottz, Vince Picone, Mike Rookstool, Ed Velasquez, and Pat McCune stood in anticipation until the results of the previous day's voting were announced.

Jeff Drottz was the chosen Sweetheart King and Archie Allen the Prince.

Last year's King, Scott Long, congratulates Jeff (above). Clinton Kimbrell, Tammy Hauschild, John Gallamore, and Tracy Johnston enjoy the atmosphere of the dance.

'Forever' Prom Held At Royal Stadium

After dinner reservations, car rentals, and hours of primping, the long anticipated evening arrived. Saturday, April 12, Prom was held at the World Champions Royal's Stadium Clubhouse. Approximately 470 students attended the annual dance.

The theme was "Forever," by Kenny Loggins. Couples danced to the music of the band, Hot Pursuit, which kept the dance floor crowded for most of the night.

The buffet served an elegant array of snacks such as chilled shrimp, finger sandwiches, and much more.

And, of course, everyone had to get his/her prom pictures taken for lasting memories.

When a few Seniors were asked, "What does Forever in our hearts mean?" they replied:

John Giglio: Knowing you will always have friends.

Michele Guillaume: A new life which lies before us.

Steve Hall: Something that never comes and goes, is always the same; and a memory to hold on to.

Jane Jacobson: a lifetime of happiness.

Pete Thomas: Never worrying if you have to succeed.

Chris Sloniker: Being together with people you care about and feeling the same way no matter what the obsticle.

Forever . . .

Clockwise From Above: Laura Hale and Mike Tucker snack on shrimp. Steve Martin, Makiko Yakota, and Paula delCampo serve themselves punch. Mary Roderick, Terri Hammock, April Osbourne, and escorts chat about the evening.

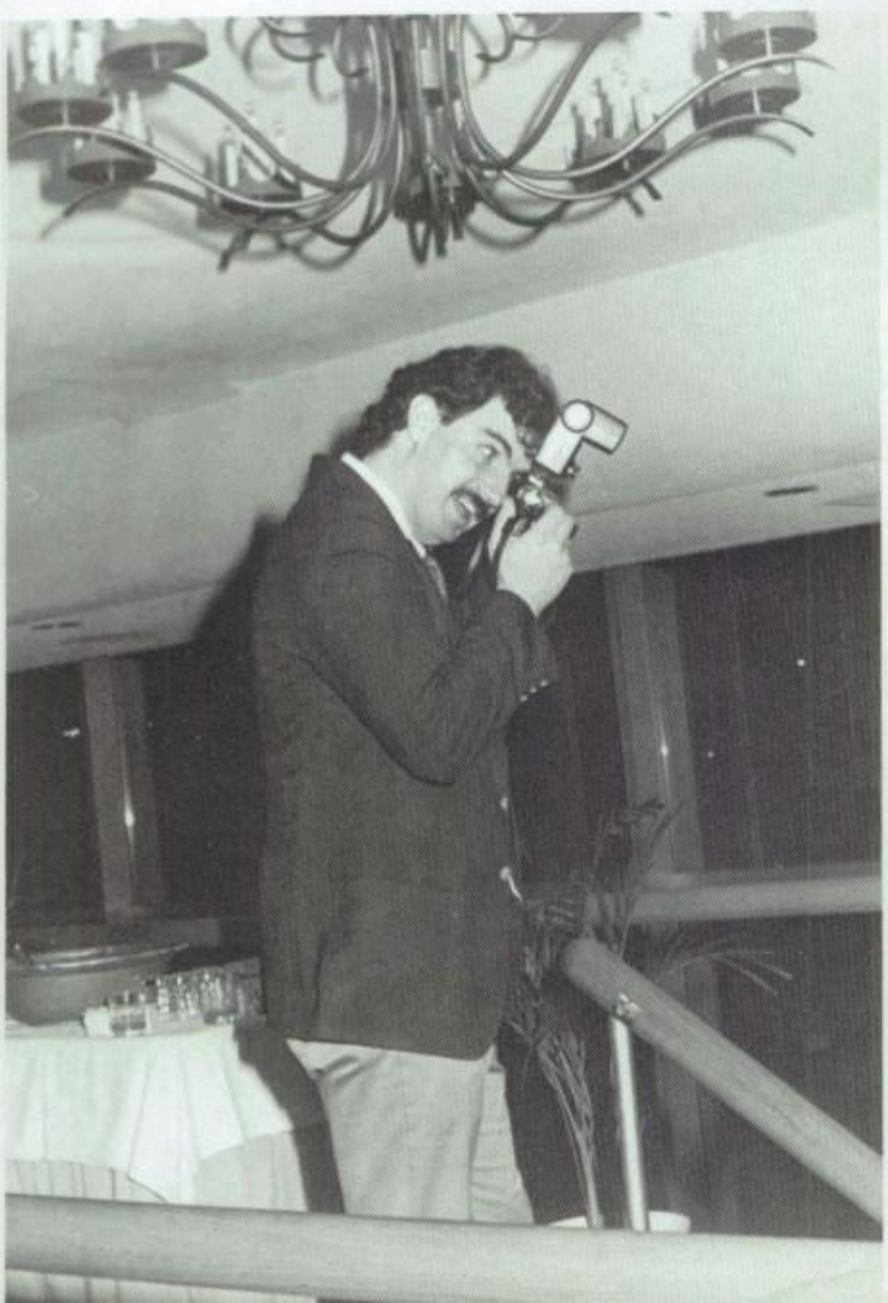
We Will Be . . .

Clockwise From Below: Almost everyone had to be photographed at Prom for memories in later years. Chris Huntington's date seems enthralled by his debonair look in his tux. Mr. Voitenko paraded most of the evening taking pictures of students for the yearbook. Most couples, as this one shows danced all evening.



. . . In Our Hearts

Acknowledgements

As usual, there are multitudes of people to thank who, in some way, had something to do with the book you now hold in your hands.

First and foremost, the Odyssey staff would like to thank the teachers and students of Winnetonka for their cooperation and courtesy as we struggled through the chores of gathering information and pinning names to unfamiliar faces.

And special thanks go to:

Jostens American Yearbook Representative Ed Villwock
John DeCloud, Than Castle and Keith Timberlake of DeCloud's Studios
John Noble (Dispatch photographer)
Amaranth (for use of their sound system for Odyssey assembly)
Francine Garcia and Rob Lyon for their help with the Opening Section of the yearbook
Ramona Sparks and Holly Elwell for putting names to faces
Everyone who did such fantastic jobs in the Odyssey assembly and talent show.

And especially Mr. Harold Harbaugh for his continuing support, encouragement, and photo-taking abilities. We couldn't have done it without you.
